

RAMSGATE'S MYSTERY TOUR

On Thursday 18th May in glorious sunshine 10 retired Partners and 2 friends set off for a mystery tour. There were 11 leaving from various stops en route to Canterbury, where we met up with our last Partner. While waiting for the next bus we all had coffee or tea in a local coffee shop.

We all boarded our next bus, and everyone was quite happy for me to book ahead for lunch, which I did. Both of the buses we used were filled with senior citizens, only 5 paying passengers all told!

The journey came to an end when we arrived in Herne Bay. The weather was still good, and after roaming around the town for 45 minutes it was time for lunch. Everyone was surprised that all the tables were laid up and we all sat together, we all agreed the meal was superb and at a very good price.

After lunch it was decided to stay in Herne Bay and do a tour of the seafront, indulging in a naughty on the way (ice cream).

Everyone enjoyed themselves so much that we have already decided to go out again this time to Deal & Walmer, and visit Walmer Castle making full use of our discount cards to get in, so again a Free Day Out except for lunch, but we might take a picnic.

Partners who went were: Margaret Walley, Pam Mitchell, Doreen Dorkings, Cinnie Harrop, Margaret Barrett, Shelia White, Beryl Kilminster, Margaret Wilkinson, Pam Bason, and myself Helen Nottingham, we also had 1 ex- partner Val Rook, and a lady called Jean a friend of Pam Bason.

By coincidence we had the same driver as the morning to take us back to Ramsgate, and he said he hoped we enjoyed ourselves. Then 4 ticket inspectors got on to check everyone's tickets you should have seen their faces, they asked the driver if he was running a O.A.P 's outing today as he'd taken no money at all, as we all had passes!
